

Bio

Jane Booth is known for monumentally scaled, color saturated dynamic paintings on raw canvas. She lives and works on a ranch outside of Kansas City, incorporating the broad vistas of land and water into tactile and textural space in her canvases.

Booth has a B.F.A. from Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas, and furthered her education in Kansas City in classes at the Kansas City Art Institute and master painter Philomene Bennett. Her works can be found in numerous private collections and corporate, including: Albrecht-Kemper Museum of Art, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Cisco Systems, H&R Block World Headquarters, Hilton Hotels, Kansas University Heart Hospital as well as featured in Kansas then Governor Sebelius' offices and chambers.

Booth is represented by galleries in Atlanta, GA; Boston, MA; Kansas City, MO; Little Rock, AR; Manhattan, KS; Omaha, NE and has a solo show in 2012 at the Albrecht-Kemper Museum. She has served on the board and is a long time member of the Kansas City Artists Coalition, and was a recent award winner in the four state River Market juried competition in Kansas City, Missouri, and selected for the Governor's Inaugural Book of Notable Kansas Artists.
